Do you want to learn how to lead effective Bible study discussions?

Has the Lord given you a speaking gift? Do you have a desire to make disciples using the powerful tool of Precept's inductive Bible study method? Over the course of 3 days, you can be trained to lead Precept Upon Precept (PUP).

You will participate in two discussions led by our Precept Training Team. You will be trained to lead effective PUP discussions.

You will have the opportunity to lead a full PUP discussion, being assessed and coached by our Precept Training Team. You will be prepared to lead your first PUP discussion group.

Potential leaders must come prepared with the entire Precept Upon Precept course completed. Space is limited during these training sessions in order to accommodate effective coaching.
