"All are not, all are to be, as it relates to Christian character traits, talents, and spiritual gifts."

We are all unique. God made us that way. He has called us to unity but not to uniformity. We are so different and yet He has said that all of His children should be the same in numerous ways.

Do you find this a bit confusing? Come and join us as we study, "Traits, Talents and Spiritual Gifts". You may find answers to your questions.

This is a free workshop, you may bring your own snack, bottled water, colored pencils, paper for taking notes, a light jacket (just in case). Study packet including Scripture and charts will be provided.

Advance registration is required through the South Carolina website scprecept.org, click on the calendar date or the workshop flyer located on the home page- it will take you to Eventbrite to register.

Deadline for registration - Saturday, July 6, 2024
